Settlement Statement

This Closing Statement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which shall constitute one agreement and the signatures of any party to any counterpart shall be deemed to be a signature to, and may be appended to any other counterpart. To facilitate execution and delivery of this Closing Statement, the parties may execute and exchange counterparts of the signature pages hereof by email or telecopier services.

Seller and Purchaser understand that Escrow Agent has assembled this information representing the transaction from the best information available from other sources and cannot guarantee the accuracy thereof, except for the title fees. Each of the undersigned parties hereby approve this Closing Statement and authorize Escrow Agent to make expenditures and disbursements as shown and by execution below acknowledges receipt of a copy of this Closing Statement. The stipulations above shall survive the closing.

Escrow Agent is released from and shall have no liability, obligation or responsibility with respect to (a) withholding of funds pursuant to Section 1445 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (b) advising the parties as to the requirements of such Section or (c) determining whether the transferor is a foreign person under such Section, acting as the Qualified Substitute or otherwise making any inquiry concerning compliance with such Section for any party to the transaction.

Purchaser confirms it has full authority to direct the application and disbursement of proceeds received from any person or entity not a Lender or party to the Closing.

In order to close this transaction, Escrow Agent relies on tax reports and other information provided by third parties, governmental agencies, Purchaser and Seller. In some instances, the calculation of transfer taxes, intangible taxes or ad valorem taxes, may differ from the local assessment offices' calculation. Purchaser and Seller understand and agree that Escrow Agent shall have no responsibility for collection or re-proration of any taxes after the closing date.
